Contest Rules and Regulations

1. The contestant must be currently licensed
2. The contestant can enter as many models as necessary in order to demonstrate their theme; however, they must comb out THREE models on stage.
3. The contestant will have ten (10) minutes to complete their entire presentation. NO COMPLETE OR PARTIAL NUDITY ALLOWED. THIS IS A FAMILY SHOW.
4. The contestant must supply their theme music to the D.J. prior to show. If any pauses the D.J. must be aware to comply with the theme
5. Once presentation begins, time will begin to count-down the completion of ten minutes.
6. The contestant will be judged in three areas; namely THEME: is the theme reflecting an artistic representation of costumes, subject matter and hair? PRESENTATION: is the message defined by a clear management of time or can the audiences interpret a beginning and end? CHOREOGRAPHY: does the composition arrangement reflect precisely what the subject is presenting with the inclusion of hair as its theme?
7. Contestant is responsible for all accessories, models, tools, supplies, music, and props for the stage.
8. Contestant is also responsible for removal of all props and supplies.
9. Contestants may use extensions; however, 1/3 of the natural hair must be integrated into the theme for completion of final comb out.
10. Contestants must report two hours prior to the competition for questions and answers.
11. Space will be reserved for completion of models, or you may report with your model draped in advance. Once contest begins there will be no talking allowed. NO EXCEPTIONS. A CONTESTANT WILL BE ALLOWED TO COMPETE BUT THE ALLOWED TIME WILL NOT BE ADJUSTED TO ACCOMMODATE FOR Q&A!
12. The judge's decisions are final! 1st, 2nd & 3rd places will be announced.

I _____ have read the rules of contest and will abide by their contents. Date _____
